Luke 11:21–22 – “When a strong man, fully armed, guards his own palace, his goods are safe; but when one stronger than he attacks him and overcomes him, he takes away his armor in which he trusted and divides his spoil.” Jesus has disarmed Satan in a most unusual way: He has disarmed him by allowing Satan to cast all his weapons into Jesus. Satan has nothing left to attack us with — he spent it all on Jesus. And now Jesus is our stronger man. He guards and keeps us and ours. We have none to fear.

Trinity News and Notes:

- Thank You

We are overcome with gratitude for the outpouring of love and concern from our church and community. Eugene's death was unexpected and you immediately stepped in to support us. Thank you for kind words, food dishes, meals, flowers, memorials, feeding cattle, hauling grain, visits and so much more. God's Blessing to all of you. Barbara, David and Family, and Don and Family.

- Reception Honoring the Confirmands

After the 7 p.m. Wednesday service and exam on March 29th, there will be a reception in the basement to honor our two confirmation students, Samantha Brown and Ella Nehrt. Come to hear their confession of our mutual faith and to give them a pat on the back for a job well done!

- Mission Federation Meeting

Delegates and pastors of all the Jackson County Mission Federation churches will meet today in the sanctuary of St. Peter's Lutheran Church in Brownstown at 2:00 p.m.

- Special Musical Offerings

There is a new sheet for special musical offerings. If you or a group are interested in singing or playing an instrument during the offering, please sign up on the sheet in the lobby. Pastor McKinley would like 2 weeks lead time, just to make sure that there are no scheduling conflicts. Also note the name of the piece you will be playing or singing.
